Governance of the Literacy System in Morocco

CONFINTEA Mid-Term Review Meeting (CONFINTEA-VI)
Agenda

1. Governing Bodies

2. Stakeholders

3. The importance of governance

4. Approach

5. Processus

6. Management tools
Governing Bodies

Board of Directors

National Agency for the Fight Against Illiteracy

- Strategy and Investments Committee
- Scientific Committee

Audit Committee
Stakeholders

Governance:
- Board of Directors
- Audit Committee
- Strategy and Investments Committee

Partners:
- Public and Private Sectors
- Elected Councils
- Technical and Financial Partners
- Civil societies
- Media

Staff:
48 People

customers:
- beneficiaries
- suppliers

ANLCA is at the heart of a strategic star
3. The importance of governance

Governance is an essential part of ANLCA’s roadmap

Governance takes great importance for the Agency considering the coordinating mission and the strategy which is assigned to it.
Digital Approach

Participatory approach

Territorial Approach

ANLCA

Approach territorial
5. The process

Literacy Engineering Process

1. Needs analysis and targeting
2. Development of Literacy Programs
3. Implementation and monitoring
4. Evaluation

For more than half of the achievements

1. Launch of the call for projects
2. Submission of projects files
3. Eligibility Committee
4. Formalization of the partnership
5. Execution, monitoring and payment of grants
6. Les outils de gérance

- Strategic planning approach
- Information system
- Management Control
- Internal control
Thank you for your attention